WHY SWINDON:

Swindon has become a popular choice for businesses looking to grow, thanks to its central location, strong transport links and excellent access to talent. Situated on the M4 corridor, it offers easy connections to London, Bristol and South Wales, making it an ideal base for companies operating across the UK.

With a thriving business community, more affordable property costs than many major cities, and continued investment in the area, Swindon combines opportunity, practicality and quality of life in one well-connected location.

Business Information	Kerr Office Group helps organisations create workplaces that support their people and business goals. Bringing together workplace strategy, design, fit-out and furniture, we provide a complete service from initial consultation through to project delivery and ongoing support. Whether planning a relocation, refurbishment or new workspace, we help clients make informed decisions, reduce complexity and achieve better outcomes. Our focus is on creating environments that improve performance.

WHAT WE OFFER:

For over 40 years, Kerr Office Group has helped organisations of all sizes create workplaces that support growth, productivity and long-term success. We have delivered projects for local businesses, national brands and international organisations, providing workplace consultancy, design, fit out and furniture solutions tailored to their needs. As new businesses invest in Swindon, we can support their establishment and growth by delivering high-quality workplace environments, drawing on our local knowledge, trusted supply chain and proven track record of delivering projects on time and within budget.

“ As a business that’s grown here, we’ve experienced first hand the opportunities Swindon offers. Its connectivity, skilled workforce and supportive business community create the ideal environment to invest. ”
Alex Kerr, CEO, Kerr Office Group
